

Agricultural Zoning

Agricultural zoning is a technique that allows municipalities to protect their rural and agricultural areas by establishing large minimum lot areas. This map shows municipalities that have agricultural zoning districts with 10-20 acre minimum lot sizes and municipalities that have districts with minimum lot sizes larger than 20 acres.

- No
- 10-20 Acres
- More than 20 Acres

