

SEPTA Unlinked City Ridership from January 2020 to September 2021

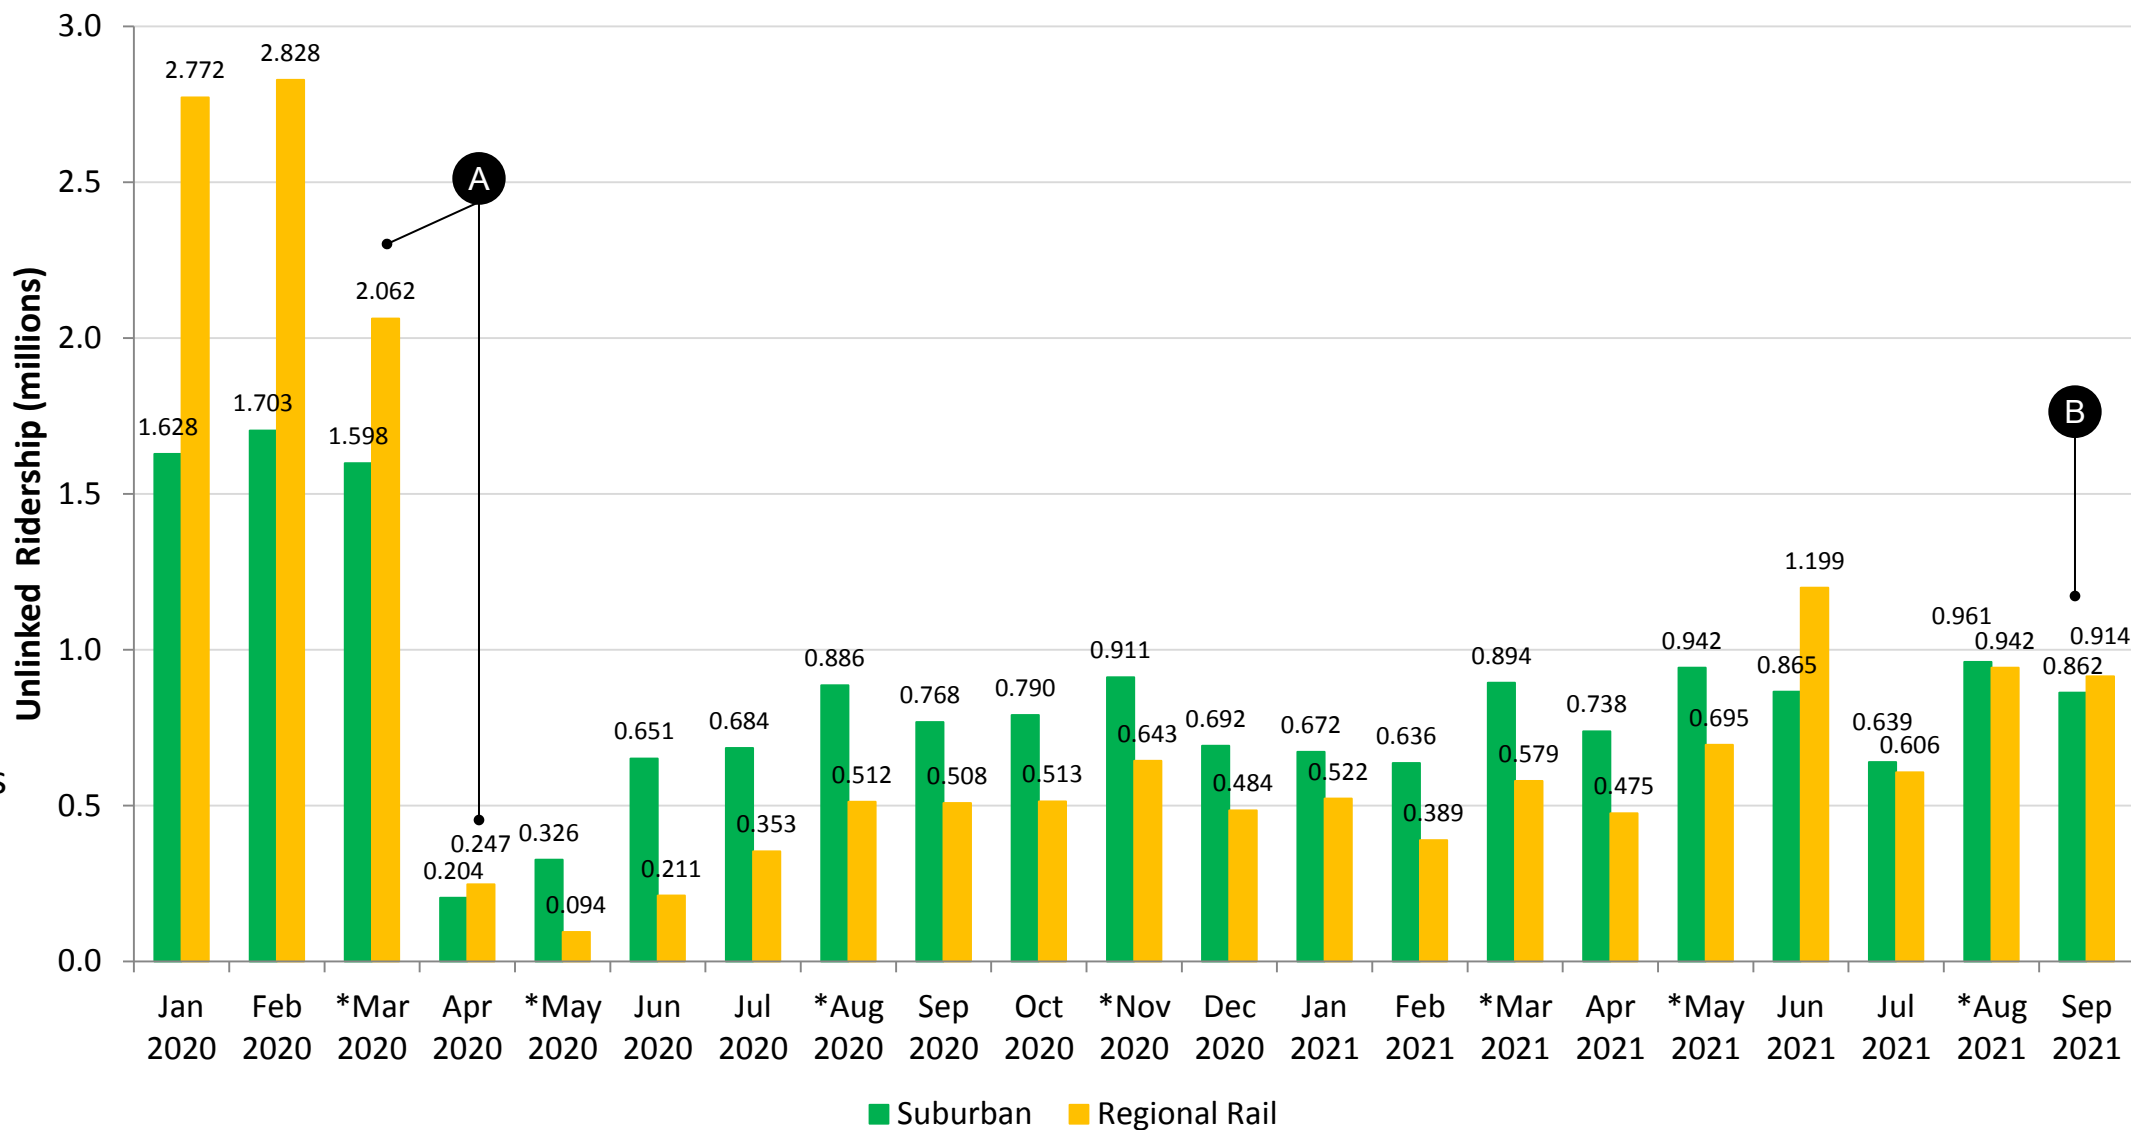

Source: SEPTA Note: * indicates a five-week month

SEPTA Unlinked Suburban and Regional Rail Ridership from January 2020 to September 2021

- A Suburban and Regional Rail ridership dropped 87% and 88%, respectively.
- B Suburban ridership, and even more so Regional rail ridership, are still well below pre-COVID levels in September 2021 at 862K and 914K, respectively.

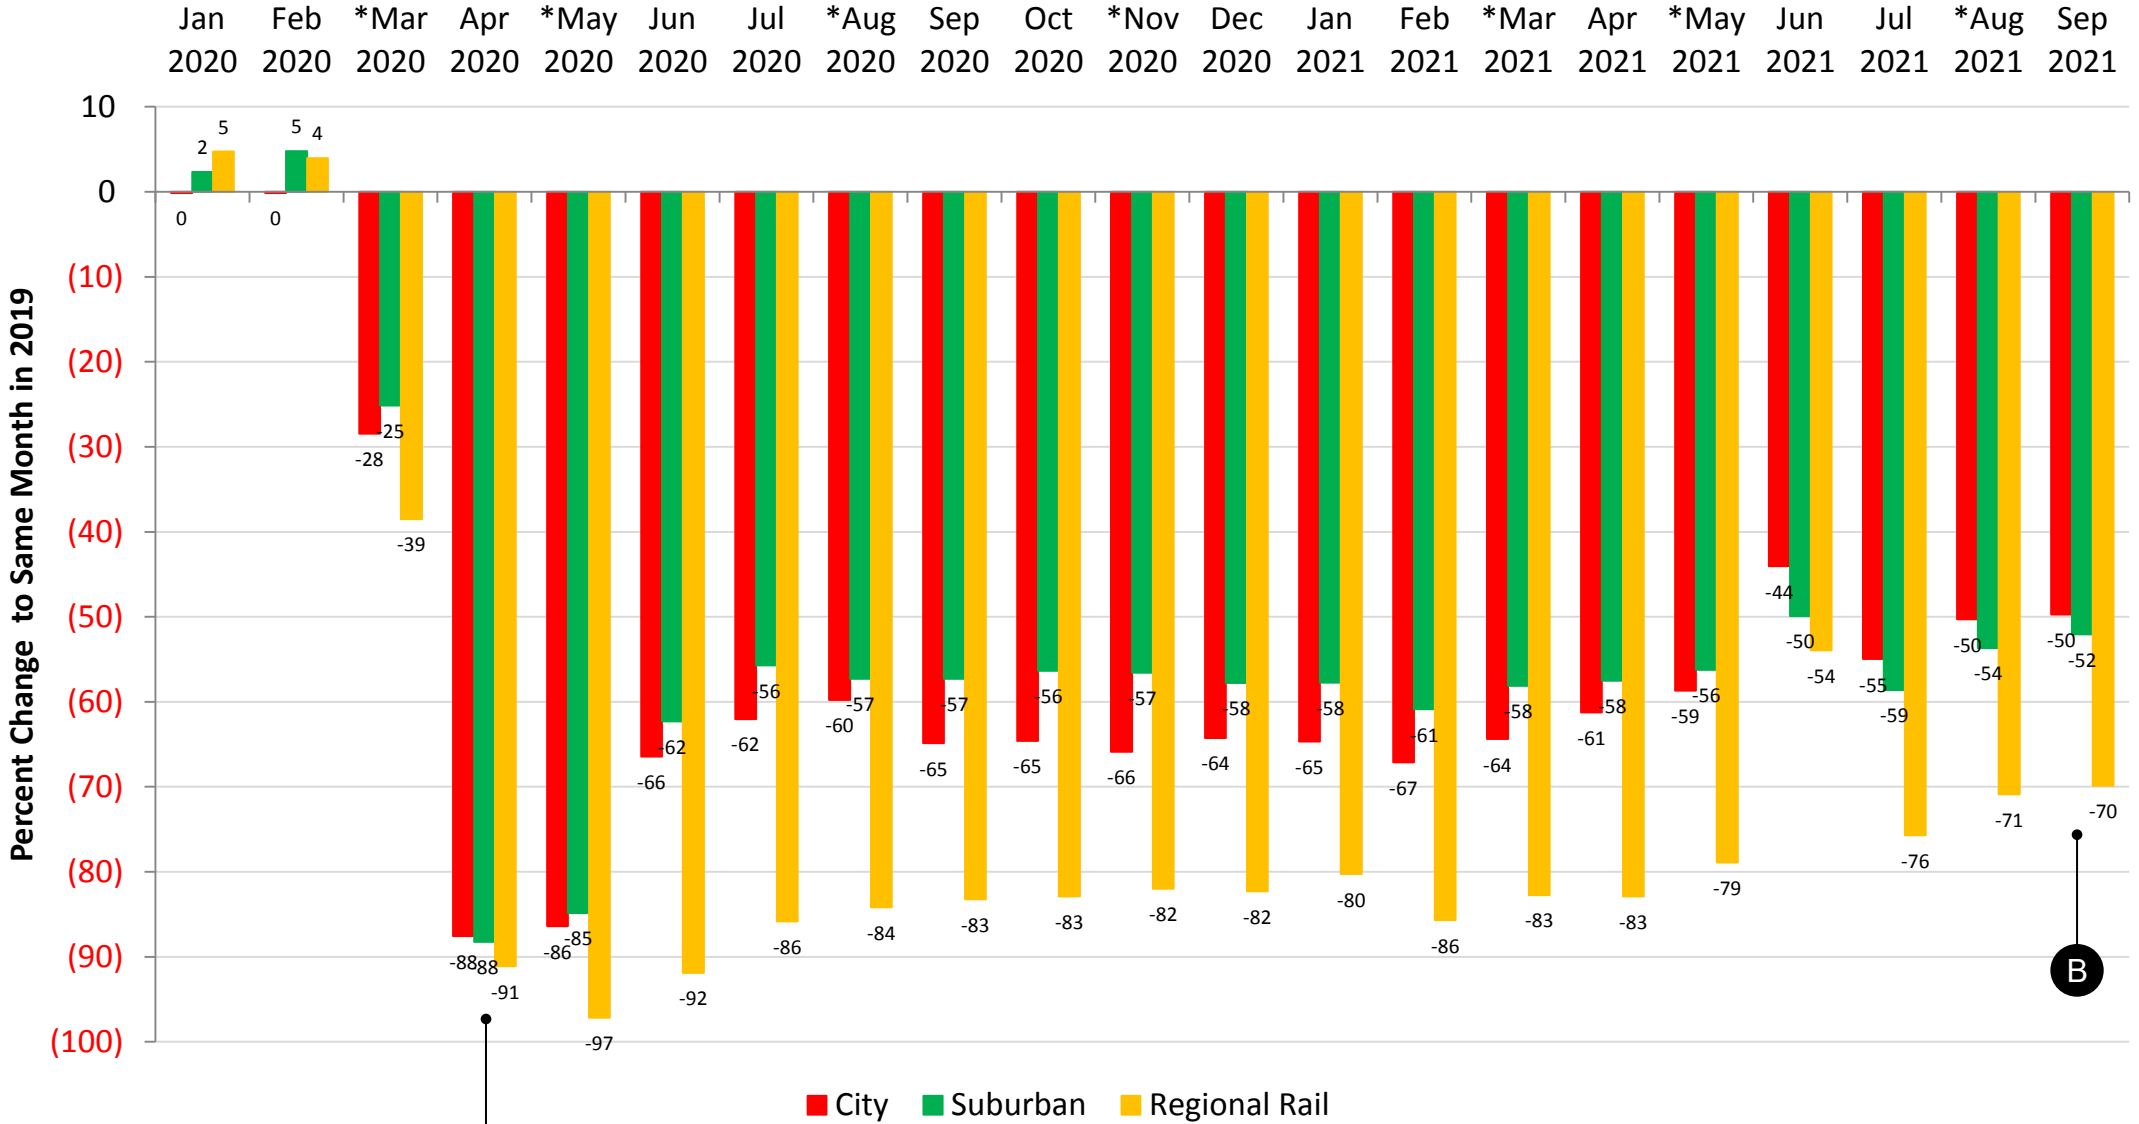

Source: SEPTA Note: * indicates a five-week month

SEPTA Percent Change in Ridership Compared to 2019 Baseline

A Significant drop in ridership in April 2020 for all transit types with City and Suburban down 88%, and Regional Rail down by 91%.

B City, Suburban and Regional Rail ridership still down 50%, 52% and 70%, respectively.

Source: SEPTA Note: * indicates a five-week month

